

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE AND IMPARTIALITY OF SENIOR MANAGEMENT

“Reliability” and “Confidentiality” are essential in INSPECTSEA SURVEY activities. Within the scope of our surveillance activities, I undertake that information that needs to be found about customers and surveillance results will not be disclosed to third parties without authorization, all property rights belonging to customers will be protected, no written or verbal information will be transferred regarding confidential documents and that I will ensure the protection of registered rights.

I undertake that I will take the necessary measures to prevent our employees from being under pressure for financial, political or other reasons, that I will protect the personnel against external pressures, that INSPECTSEA SURVEY personnel will not enter into a commercial partnership or dependency with any organization to which they provide service, that administrative units will not exert any pressure on the personnel conducting technical work, that the employees will work in an independent environment and that I will ensure that I notify the relevant persons.

I declare that in our activities, we will provide independent and impartial service to the relevant parties and our customers within the principles of confidentiality and reliability.
